HAMILTON LEADS IN ILLINOIS

John Coyne quelled a disturbance in one polling place over charges of "repeating" in the voting. Coyne was seriously injured and the woman knocked to the floor.

Several unsuccessful attempts to steal ballot boxes were made and two precinct captains were included among the men kidnapped, in each case by gangs in automobiles.

The bureau estimated, on the same returns, that Frank Smith would be $5,000 over Congressman William R. McKinley in city and county for the republican nomination for United States senator.

On early returns, Macley Hynes, incumbent, ran behind his opponent, Michael Igoo, for democratic nomination for state's attorney, of Cook county.

Small is Leading.

The Chicago city news bureau, which is tabulating Chicago and Cook county returns, estimated that if the early ratio of returns continued, Len Small would have a majority in city and county for the republican nomination for governor of $5,000 over John G. Oglesby.

In early returns from the state, outside Chicago and Cook county, Small led Oglesby and Smith led McKinley.

For governor, 214 precincts out of 5,787 in Illinois, including 34 outside of Cook county, gave:

Small, 17,086; Oglesby, 10,445.

For the democratic nomination for governor, 318 precincts in both city and state gave former Senator James Hamilton Lewis, 10,516, and former Lieutenant Governor Barrett O'Hara, 1,856.

In the race between Congressman Frank Smith and William R. McKinley for the republican senatorial nomination, 267 precincts out of 5,787 in Illinois gave: Smith, 18,625; McKinley, 9,965.

Republican and democratic candidates for United States senator, representatives governor, and nearly ninety other state offices were voted on by men and women in Illinois today.

The bitter campaign, which developed between two factions in the republican party was expected to result in the largest vote in the state's history.

Factional Fight.

The republican factional fight centered around the ticket headed by Len Small, of Kankakee, and supported by Mayor William Hale Thompson, of Chicago, to which G. Oglesby, lieutenant governor, supported by Gov. Frank O. Lowden, of Chicago, was added.

The announcement by Sheriff Charles W. Peck, of Cook county, of the appointment of more than 1,000 deputies for duty at the polls.

draw charges from the Thompson faction of attempted intimidation, and instructions to the police to arrest any deputies found violating city ordinances or election regulations.

Sheriff Peters warned that interference with the deputies "might lead to bloodshed."

The principal senatorial fight on the republican ticket also was between Lowden and Thompson candidates. The man favored by Governor Lowden is Representative W. R. McKinley, of Champaign, while the candidate supported by Mayor Thompson is Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, a congressman. A third candidate is Burnett M. Chipperfield, of Canton, a former representative.

Seeking the democratic nomination for governor is James Hamilton Lewis, former senator, opposed by Barrett O'Hara, former lieutenant governor. Both are from Chicago. The democratic senatorial race lay between Robert Emmet Burke, of Chicago, and Peter A. Waller, of Kewanee.

Among the republican members of congress seeking renomination was Uncle Joe Cannon, of Danville, 84 years old, veteran of twenty-two congresses. His opponent was E. B. Volley, also of Danville.

Junior Order Hosts At Large Barbecue

W. D. Upshaw Speaks

Fairburn, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—The Junior Order of American Mechanics were the hosts at a barbecue here today which proved to be one of the most enthusiastic gatherings held in Fairburn in some time. "Uncle Joe" Upchurch, the veteran barbecue chef, prepared the meal.

The speakers for the occasion were: Dr. C. A. Ridley, of Atlanta; Dr. Charles A. Bass, of Fairburn; and Congressman W. D. Upshaw. Each speaker dealt with patriotism, the Bible, the American flag and school houses. Congressman Upshaw's speech was non-political. His topic was "Americanism That Will Save America."

Speakers were introduced by Lawrence Camp, newly elected representative from Campbell county. Prof. M. D. Collins, county school superintendent of Fairburn, presided. A large crowd attended the gathering.

Lucy Cobb Opens.

Athens, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—With the opening of the Lucy Cobb Institute today under the direction of Miss Mildred Rutherford, for the 1920-1921 session, all Athens educational institutions have begun the year's work. The State Normal opened last week, and the university and State College of Agriculture opened Monday. More than 2,000 students from Georgia and other southern states are in Athens now for a year's college work.

GOVERNOR BLOCKS SUFFRAGE HEADS

Chief Executive of Connecticut Doubts Legality of Ratification of 19th Amendment.

Hartford, Conn., September 15.—Governor Marcus H. Holcomb, doubting the legality of the ratification of the nineteenth amendment by the legislature yesterday, has withheld certification of the action.

Miss Catharine M. Flanagan, for the suffrage association, last night secured a certified copy of the resolution of ratification and left for Washington to file it with Secretary of State Coby.

The legislature has been called into special session next Tuesday to receive from Governor Holcomb the rescript of the nineteenth amendment and proclamation which Secretary Coby sent him, and on which he expects the legislature to act.

The governor has said that the action of the legislature yesterday did not concern him. He added that he has outlined how ratification can be rightly accomplished by Connecticut and that he would not certify until it was done in a legal way.

WALKER ASKS RECOUNT OF WARE COUNTY VOTES

Waycross, September 15.—(Special.)—Formal request for a recount of Ware county votes in the governor's race was received today from Clifford Walker by W. E. Sirmans, chairman of the democratic executive committee. Mr. Sirmans immediately notified Mr. Hardwick, the opposing candidate for governor, of the proposed recount. And at the same time called a meeting of the democratic executive committee to be held on the 18th, when recount will be made. In the primary of the 8th Hardwick led Walker by four votes.

POLAND SUMMONS YOUTHS TO ARMS

Five New Classes Will Give Her 200,000 More Men—Lithuania Wants Recognition of United States.

Warsaw, September 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Lithuanians and the Poles are again engaged in hostilities. It is announced in tonight's Polish official statement. Fighting has been resumed between the two forces in the Suwalki sector, near the German border.

The statement also says Kovel, in Volhynia, has been captured, with 3,000 prisoners.

The loss of Kovel deprives the bolshevik of railway communication between the Pinsk district and the southern front. Kovel was a junction point for six railroads, and three of these lines are brought within the Polish area of control by its capture.

The Lithuanian fighting was brought on through a surprise attack on the Poles, which forced them to withdraw from Seyn. The reports indicate that the Lithuanians are advancing in the direction of Augustowo.

Five Classes Called.
A military decree has been issued calling up five new classes which is estimated to bring into service more than 200,000 men. The classes called are from 1859 to 1885 inclusive.

In the north quiet prevailed along the battle line where recently there were encounters between the Lithuanians and the Poles over the disputed boundary line, the problem having resolved itself into a conference at Kalwary, where the Poles and Lithuanians are to meet to discuss the question. Kalwary, twenty-seven miles northeast of Suwalki on the highway to Grodno, was selected by the Poles for the conference, although they will urge a transfer of negotiations to Riga, where the Lithuanian question will be placed before the peace conference together with the Ukrainian problem and other matters referring to peace with the soviets. The Kalwary conference which was scheduled to open today is expected to last only a few days. Each side is represented by a small delegation.

Poles Planning Peace.
Warsaw, September 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Polish delegation appointed to conduct peace negotiations with soviet Russia left Warsaw on a special train tonight for Danzig, where its members will board British torpedo boat destroyers for conveyance to Riga, in which city the conference is to be held. Mr. Dombalski, under secretary for foreign affairs and head of the delegation, said the instructions to the Polish representatives were the same as those given the delegates before their departure for Minsk for the earlier conference with the soviet emissaries. He declared the Polish government had no intention of taking any advantage of the victories gained over the Russians, who had reached the outskirts of Warsaw and then were pushed back, and that the Poles would not make any effort to force upon the soviet government terms which might be considered unfair.

Mr. Dombalski, who made this statement just before the delegation left for Riga, asserted he was hopeful that the conference, which was expected to open within the next few days, would result in peace.

"I hope," he remarked to the newspapermen, "that the Polish delegates will find good-will on the part of the soviet delegates we are to meet in Riga, and it is upon this hope that I base my convictions that the negotiations will bring peace."

Aims of Poland.
"Poland's aim is a peace of understanding and agreement," declared M. Dombalski, who said he felt positive that if the soviet delegates entered the negotiations with a good-will to make peace they would be obliged to recognize the rightfulness and moderation of Poland's attitude. He was of the opinion that in this event an agreement regarding the peace preliminaries and an armistice, as well as one regarding the frontiers of Poland and soviet Russia, would soon be reached.

The delegation is the same as that which represented Poland in the Minsk negotiations, except that General Listowski has been withdrawn from the delegation and M. Bankowski, mayor of Vilna, and M. Wasilowski, the Polish envoy to Eschonia, have been added.

Want Recognition.
Washington, September 15.—Request for the recognition of Lithuania by the United States was made to Secretary of State Colby at a meeting here today of the federation of Lithuanian organizations in the United States. Secretary Colby, in the American note to Italy on the Russian-Polish situation, formally refused to recognize Lithuania or any of the former Russian provinces until the re-establishment of a stable government in Russia.

The Lithuanian organizations also requested that the United States government demand guarantees from Poland that the shipment of war supplies to Poland should not be used in the taking of Lithuanian territory.

Jugo-Slavs at Peace.
Belgrade, September 15.—The Jugo-slav parliament today ratified the treaty of peace with Bulgaria.

Wrangel Claims Successes.
Paris, September 15.—New successes for the army of General Wrangel, anti-bolshevik leader in southern Russia, are announced today in Constantinople advices. On the Don river, General Nataroff has cut the railway line from Voronezh to Tsaritsyn. At Malikou the Three Hundred and Forty-fifth division of bolsheviks is said to have surrendered to insurgents.

the case, or any knowledge that has not yet been made public.

Atlanta police still maintain the belief that Trexler was the victim of a boot-legging ring, who thought him inimical to their business, and suspected him of their betrayal. The police say that there has been no other reasonable theory advanced, and that Kelloy's claim of an am-buscade is preposterous. It is said that the father-in-law's activities on the night of the killing have been thoroughly investigated, and that he can establish a perfect alibi.

Mrs. Gladys Feagor, a close friend of the widow of Trexler, received a letter Wednesday from the chauffeur's widow, addressed from Lock Haven, Pa., which city the body of the slain man has been sent.

JACK KELLOY TAKEN TO GRIFFIN FROM MACON.

Macon, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—Jack Kelloy, who has been held in the Bibb county jail for several days on a charge of murdering Leroy Trexler, an Atlanta taxicab driver, near Griffin, will be taken to Griffin early tomorrow. It is understood here Kelloy will be arraigned before Judge W. E. H. Seay tomorrow morning at an adjourned term of court. Kelloy is preparing to make a hard fight. He has employed Attorney John R. Cooper to represent him, while friends in Atlanta have engaged Attorney J. L. Crawford. Kelloy maintains that his father-in-law, E. B. Kidwell, of Atlanta, fired the shot that ended Trexler's life, information from Spalding county authorities today is that they are satisfied no third party was involved in the murder.

"I am ready to return to Griffin or any other place at any time," said Kelloy tonight. "I am not guilty of the charge against me. As a matter of fact, the bullet that killed Trexler was intended for me."

That's all coming out, and I will prove my innocence."

A mysterious little woman in black called on Kelloy at the county jail today and brought him some cigars. "I don't know a thing about the Kelloy case," she said to a reporter who had heard Kelloy address her as "Miss Lucile." "I am only a good Samaritan, and brought cigars to him. Mrs. Frances Roche is coming back tomorrow from Atlanta."

Kelloy told a reporter today that he knew Trexler real well, and also that he knew the women visitors who have been calling on him at the county jail. He insisted that the "Miss Lucile" who called on him today is a resident of Macon, but he said he used to board with her parents in Atlanta.

Kelloy speaks seven or eight languages, and says he has toured the world. He claims to have been a government interpreter at one time, and says he has had seven years of government service, though he is only 27 years of age.

KELLOY'S APPLICATION AS POLICEMAN DENIED.

Jack Kelloy's name has been dismissed from the list of applicants for position on the Atlanta police force, it was announced yesterday by police headquarters. Kelloy filed his application with Chief of Police James L. Beavers some time ago, but on Tuesday Chief Beavers dismissed the application, pending the outcome of the charge of murder now against Kelloy.

Corner "Delicatessen Store" Is Given Blame For Breaking Up Homes

Washington, September 15.—If fewer wives depended upon the "corner delicatessen store," and "ready cooked tin can food," there would be fewer broken homes in this country, Miss Agnes V. Mahoney, of the industrial survey and research bureau of Washington, declared in an address today before the national conference of Catholic charities.

"If wives would take the trouble of preparing wholesome and appetizing meals for their husbands there would be a great many more happy homes," she said.

JACK KELLOY TAKEN TO GRIFFIN FROM MACON.

Macon, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—Jack Kelloy, who has been held in the Bibb county jail for several days on a charge of murdering Leroy Trexler, an Atlanta taxicab driver, near Griffin, will be taken to Griffin early tomorrow. It is understood here Kelloy will be arraigned before Judge W. E. H. Seay tomorrow morning at an adjourned term of court. Kelloy is preparing to make a hard fight. He has employed Attorney John R. Cooper to represent him, while friends in Atlanta have engaged Attorney J. L. Crawford. Kelloy maintains that his father-in-law, E. B. Kidwell, of Atlanta, fired the shot that ended Trexler's life, information from Spalding county authorities today is that they are satisfied no third party was involved in the murder.

"I am ready to return to Griffin or any other place at any time," said Kelloy tonight. "I am not guilty of the charge against me. As a matter of fact, the bullet that killed Trexler was intended for me."

SHE ONLY WEIGHED NINETY POUNDS

"When I first began taking Tanlae I only weighed ninety pounds. But I now weigh one hundred and fifteen," said Mrs. E. J. Straw, of 719 Crocker street, Des Moines, Iowa.

"I really thought I was not going to ever get well," she continued. "So my wonderful recovery has made me one of the happiest women in Iowa and I believe Tanlae saved my life."

"A year ago I had influenza which left my kidneys all out of order and my stomach in such bad condition I could not eat without suffering terribly afterwards. I also had neuritis so bad in my right shoulder that I had not been able to comb my hair for six months. I tried everything to get built up again, but got worse all the time, and to add to my troubles, my nerves gave away. I could not do any of my housework and had to spend most of the time in bed."

"When I began taking Tanlae I had been in bed three weeks, but before I finish the first bottle I was up and about. Now I have taken seven bottles and every one has been worth its weight in gold to me. The stomach troubles, neuritis and nervousness are entirely gone and I am so strong I can do all my housework without the least trouble. In fact, I am enjoying the best of health and I can't praise Tanlae enough."

Tanlae is sold in Atlanta exclusively by Jacobs' Pharmacy Company.

BROUSSARD LEADS IN SENATE RACE

Brother of Late Senator Is Far Ahead of Former Governor Jared Y. Sanders in Louisiana.

New Orleans, September 15.—Edwin S. Broussard, of New Iberia, brother of the late Senator Robert Broussard, had a big lead for the democratic nomination for United States senator over Congressman and former Governor Jared Y. Sanders tonight on returns from the city of New Orleans and about half the state.

In the congressional primaries James O'Connor in the First district, were returned by big majorities. Former Congressman George K. Favre appears elected in the Sixth district, James B. Aswell in the Eighth. In the Fourth district John T. Watkins was defeated for re-nomination by his fellow townsman, J. H. Sandlin, by a majority of more than 5,000. In the other three districts the incumbents were unopposed. According to returns received and tabulated by The Times-Picayune, from New Orleans and about half the state, Edwin S. Broussard has 26,472; Donelson Caffery, 8,427; and Jared Y. Sanders, 22,232. Sanders showed considerable strength in the northern part of the state, but returns from the southern parishes and those of central Louisiana returned large majorities for Broussard. Both Broussard and Sanders headquarters claim the lead, but both say that second primary will be necessary to make the choice.

In the municipal primary Andrew McShane was nominated over Martin Behrman by 1,279 majority.

MILLER LEADING

New York, September 15.—Delayed returns from the New York state primary, held yesterday, tabulated tonight, gave increased majorities to republican and democratic organization candidates in all state-wide contests.

With but 752 districts missing out of a total of 7,774 in the state, Nathan L. Miller, of Syracuse, who received the endorsement of the unofficial republican state convention had a majority of 119,134 over State Senator George F. Thompson, in the contest for the republican gubernatorial nomination.

Thompson, however, was the unopposed choice for the prohibition nomination for governor. Governor Alfred E. Smith was unopposed for the democratic nomination.

In the contest for the republican nomination for United States senator, James W. Wadsworth, Jr., organization designee who was seeking re-election, had a majority of 128,697 over the combined vote of his two opponents, with 813 districts of the state still missing. He defeated Mrs. Ella A. Bopie, president of the state branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, by a vote of approximately 21-2 to one, while George Henry Payne, New York city commissioner and the third aspirant, received a vote a little more than half as large as Mrs. Bopie.

With returns from 1,126 districts still to be heard from, Lieutenant Governor Harry C. Walker had a majority of 58,377 over Mayor George H. Lunn, of Schenectady, in the contest for the democratic nomination for United States senator.

HARTNESS A WINNER

Montpelier, Vt., September 15.—Complete returns of yesterday's state primaries gave victory to James Hartness, of Springfield, in the four-cornered contest for the gubernatorial nomination on the republican ticket by a vote of nearly two to one over his nearest opponent. Congressman Porter H. Dale was renominated by the republicans in the Second district.

The vote complete for governor was—Hartness, 23,776; Frank W. Agan, 12,859; Curtis S. Emery, 12,784; Fred H. Babbitt, 11,444.

Senator Jones Ahead

Seattle, Wash., September 15.—United States Senator Wesley L. Jones early today continued to lead three others seeking the republican nomination for senator in yesterday's primaries, when 294 precincts out of 2,866 in the state had reported. The vote showed Jones, 10,024; Erickson, 1,433; Hudson, 2,466; Ingalls, 5,216.

For the republican nomination for governor, Roland H. Hartley was leading when 229 precincts reported. The vote for democratic nomination for governor in 229 precincts showed Mathes, 74; O'Hara, 22; Judd, 56; Black, 98.

Collins Is Leading

Denver, Col., September 15.—The slight lead of J. M. Collins, non-partisan and labor candidate for the democratic nomination for governor almost overshadowed interest in other contests in yesterday's state-wide primary. With most of the city vote heard from and a majority of the country precincts unreported, Collins was leading Robert M. Higgins, former state treasurer, by a little more than 100 votes.

In the three-cornered republican contests for nomination for United States senator 498 of the 1,532 precincts gave Karl C. Schuyler, of Denver, a lead of 1,488 over his nearest opponent, Samuel D. Nicholson, of Leadville.

Senator Smith Renominated

Columbia, S. C., September 15.—United States Senator Ellison D. Smith was renominated by South Carolina democrats in yesterday's primary, unofficial returns to the Columbia State from 44 of the 46 counties in the state indicated early today. The state figures, actually, counting for 99,090 of an estimated total of 100,000 votes, gave Senator Smith a majority of 7,000 over his lone opponent, George Warren, of Hampton. The vote was, Smith, 52,544; Warren, 36,593.

The primary was the second held in South Carolina. None of the senatorial candidates in the first primary received a majority of the votes cast.

MARSHAL PETAIN, HUN CONQUEROR, STRIKES COLORS

Paris, September 15.—Marshal Henri Petain, commander-in-chief of French armies during the latter years of the great war, and the French general whose work at Verdun made him a national figure, was married to Mme. Hardon, at the city hall, of the Seventh ward of Paris, on Tuesday morning, says The Petit Parisien. The ceremony was witnessed by General Fayolle, another noted French commander during the war, and Mme. Gabrielle Ferrer, widow of the celebrated painter, who was stepfather of the bride. Marshal Petain and his bride left last evening for the Riviera, where the former owns a small estate.

The marriage is the realization of a life-long dream of the marshal, who knew the bride when she was a very young girl, long before his first marriage. The bride, according to The Excelsior, is very wealthy.

Newspapers here compliment the marshal on the strategy he used in routing reporters and photographers, not one of whom had an inkling that the wedding was to take place, although it must have been planned for a long time. The Excelsior says Marshal Petain, in anticipation of the event, put himself down in the latest issue of The Paris Social Register as married, and the newspaper prints an extract from that publication to prove its assertion that the marriage had been contemplated for a considerable period.

INTRASTATE RATE INCREASES COME TO COMMISSION

Washington, September 15.—Two additional hearings having to do with the failure of state railroad commissions to permit intrastate rate increases on a par with interstate rate advances recently authorized were ordered today by the interstate commerce commission.

On September 27 at Detroit, Mich., Commissioner Woolley will hold hearings on the reasonableness of the requirements of the Michigan public utilities commission that passenger fares within that state must conform with state laws which permit fares less than those authorized by the federal commission for interstate traffic.

On the same day at Columbia, S. C., an examiner for the commission will conduct hearings on the action of the South Carolina commission in refusing to permit increases in intrastate passenger fares and switching charges.

CALIFORNIA MAY ABOLISH SUMMER SCHOOL VACATION

Sacramento, Cal., September 15.—Abolition of summer school vacations for all children between 8 and 16 years of age because the vacation period "induced habits of idleness and criminality among boys" was advocated by Will C. Wood, state superintendent of schools today.

Wood said exceptions should be made in the cases of children who assist in harvesting fruit and similar work. "But, of course, only children over 12 would be permitted to work even in agricultural districts."

The idea was expressed in a letter to Superior Judge M. R. McCormick, of Fresno county. Wood said legislation to eliminate school vacations may be introduced at the coming legislature session.

In England, in 1665, when the plague was raging, tobacco was regarded as an excellent protection against infection, and even the boys in school were officially ordered to smoke.

ROCKS ARE TOSSED AT GOVERNOR COX BY SENATOR BORAH

Dayton, Ohio, September 15.—Asserting that if elected, Governor Cox "will scrap the policies of Washington and Monroe," Senator William E. Borah, Idaho, in a speech in Governor Cox's home city declared the issue between Harding and Cox clear-cut.

"Both candidates may be for all I know in favor of some kind of a league, but as to the basis on which that league, if we are to have one, is to rest there is a fundamental and irreconcilable difference," Senator Borah declared.

The present league of nations plan would be ineffective without Articles X and XV, Borah said, and Cox has shown that he is in full accord with President Wilson in the view that Article X should be retained unchanged.

"Senator Harding," he said on the other hand, "has declared his unalterable opposition to Article X, declaring it represents not justice, but force, not liberty, but oppression, not peace, but war."

"No scheme of peace," he continued, "will ever be worthy of a people's confidence which does not place the power of peace on war in the hands of those who pay taxes and fight the battles."

"After the first bottle of Ziron I took, I could tell a difference in my feelings," writes this Georgian. "I could eat more and relish it. I have taken three bottles of Ziron. Its real worth cannot be told."

"I will recommend Ziron to weak and run-down people. It will help them."

FRENCH PRESIDENT TO RESIGN PLACE

Paris, September 15.—President Deschanel will undoubtedly be obliged to resign because of his ill health, and the question of the presidency will be taken up by the cabinet Friday, according to a semi-official communiqué issued this evening.

The communiqué read: "The statements published in the press this morning are correct as to the state of the president's health, which is becoming more and more precarious. The president doubtless will be obliged to resign. It also is correct that the council of ministers on Friday will take up the question, from a constitutional viewpoint.

Alexandre Millerand, French premier and foreign minister, is prominently mentioned as the next president of the French republic. Should President Deschanel resign because of ill health, says the communiqué, some of M. Millerand's friends declare he will refuse to become a candidate, but, nevertheless, there is a tendency to believe he may be induced to accept, if the office is offered him unconditionally.

Should he refuse to become a candidate, there are several other prominent men in public life who might enter the campaign. Among them are Charles A. Jonart, now extraordinary ambassador to the Vatican; Raoul Peret, president of the chamber of deputies; Leon Bourgeois, president of the senate; Alexandre F. Pirot, former premier; Jules Pams, former minister of interior; and Georges Leygues, former minister of marine.

While regretting the probable departure of President Deschanel from public life, Paris newspapers generally agree that the present uncertain situation cannot continue, and they see little probability of his health being restored. Some even declare it has become worse.

FEW CHANGES WILL BE MADE IN FORM FOR INCOME TAX

Washington, September 15.—Few important changes in the forms for filing income tax returns will be necessary, the bureau of internal revenue announced tonight, after a conference between representatives of various business organizations and a committee on the proposed revision of income tax forms of 1920. The committee was appointed by Commissioner Williams.

No radical changes are being considered by the committee, the bureau stated, and such suggestions as the business men have to offer are of minor character. C. B. Hurry, chairman of the bureau's committee, announced that briefs containing suggestions for the revision of the forms will be received until October 1.

COAL COMMISSION CONTINUES PROBE

Miners and Employers Still at Loggerheads in Alabama—Report to Be Ready for the Governor Soon.

Birmingham, Ala., September 15.—With the completion of statements by operators and union leaders, Governor Kilby's coal commission tonight was gathering up loose ends before making its report to the state executive. Members of the commission indicated the inquiry would end within the next few days. They refused to discuss their direct to the governor. However, they admitted that negotiations had become deadlocked upon the issue of union recognition.

The United Mine Workers, through their president, J. R. Kennerly, have charged the operators with failing to observe the findings of President Wilson's coal commission in refusing to recognize the principle of collective bargaining.

James Bonnyman, chairman of a committee representing the Alabama Coal Operators' association, told the commission the operators would not deal directly or indirectly with the United Mine Workers. The union has broken contracts in this state, said Mr. Bonnyman, and dealing with the United Mine Workers on the "blue-book" basis would amount almost to a confiscation of mine property.

No Action Taken.
Hazelton, Pa., September 15.—Failing to receive assurance from Secretary of Labor Wilson or the mine operators that there would be no discrimination against month men who quit work in sympathy with the miners, the policy committee of the anthracite mine workers adjourned its third day's session here tonight without taking any action toward ending the hard-coal workers' "vacation" strike.

POSSES CHASING NEGRO MURDERER BURN LODGE HALLS

Macon, Ga., September 15.—Posses pursuing John Spillers, a negro who is alleged to have shot and killed James Faulkner and wounded his brother, John, in Jasper county Monday, have burned four negro lodge halls in that county, according to reports reaching here.

The lodge halls were located at Shady Dale, Altraville, Hillsboro and a negro settlement just out of Monticello, where the shooting occurred.

The burning of the lodge buildings was said to have been caused by a report that negroes were holding meetings in them to raise money to aid Spillers' escape.

Four hundred men with six bloodhounds were on the trail of the negro today. Spillers was traced to a small creek that joins the Ocmulgee river early tonight, where the dogs lost the scent.

French Huguenot refugees and their descendants have worshiped in the crypt of Canterbury cathedral ever since 1550, when a royal charter of liberty to worship there was granted them.

CARL VINSON GIVEN FORMAL NOMINATION

Augusta, Ga., September 15.—(Special).—Carl Vinson was formally nominated for congress to succeed himself at the convention of democrats of the tenth congressional district here today. Milton Barwick, an olive delegate from Louisville, made a motion directly after M. C. B. Holly had put Vinson in nomination to make the Vinson nomination unanimous, and the Barwick motion was unanimously carried. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the national democratic nomination and the course in congress of Congressman Vinson.

After adjournment Mr. Vinson entertained the delegates at dinner at one of the hotels.

Hub—One night while you were away, I heard a burglar. You should have seen me going downstairs three steps at a time.

Wife—Where was he, on the roof?

CLASS FOR DEAF PROVIDED BY CITY AT OAKLAND CITY

One of the most unusual classes in the Atlanta public schools is the Atlanta School for Deaf Children, which is being conducted at the Oakland City school on Avon avenue. The class is for children who are too deaf to be taught by ordinary methods. Several more children can be accommodated, it was announced yesterday.

For several years the class was conducted at the Abby Street school, but when that school was converted into a colored school the class for children with deaf hearing was transferred to Oakland City. The classroom is well equipped with kindergarten material, and various helps for teaching the children how to read the line and square the use of signs and finger spelling.

Miss Belle Simpson has been the teacher for many years, but is replaced as one of the best additions in this line of work in the country. There are now five children in the class. To enter the school a child must obtain a regular public school ticket and secure an assignment to the special class.

By doing the circulating brake system, refrigerator motor, truck bodies have been perfected in which less than 16 per cent of the load space is required for the refrigeration apparatus.

In Our Furniture Sale You Discover Many Wonderful Values Surprising When You Consider the Quality

EVER, since we moved into our new store, have we offered such sweeping reductions in FINE FURNITURE AS WE ARE OFFERING THIS MONTH. As a matter of fact we do not remember any time in our history that we have been able to offer such unusual values as we list in this and our previous advertisement. Furniture is not lower in price, nor does it show any tendency to drop. Were we to go to the market we would pay just about the same, or perhaps a little higher price to replace the articles we offer here, that is, provided we could get them at all. However, we wish to move as much of this stock as we can during September and are willing to make the necessary reduction in order to do so. While every sale of this furniture at these prices must be considered FINAL, we guarantee each article to be exactly as represented to you when you purchase. In every case, except where we specifically state, ALL ITEMS ARE IN FIRST-CLASS CONDITION IN EVERY RESPECT.

OFFICER'S SLAYER GIVEN LIFE TERM

leged that when Webb announced that he would nevertheless have to seize the car and take it to headquarters, the driver suddenly fired a revolver point-blank at the two officers, killing Webb and wounding House.

House was the chief witness against Black, claiming that he positively identified him as the driver of the car. The case of the defense consisted chiefly in an attempt to shake the testimony of House and to establish an alibi for Black.

Black, who formerly lived in Atlanta, is about 35 years old and has a wife and three children, now living in Detroit.

Solicitor George M. Napier and former Congressman William Schley Howard conducted the prosecution, while Greene F. Johnson, of Monticello, and Alonso Field, of Atlanta, represented the defendant.

PLANS ADVANCED FOR WORLD COURT

league, and Elihu Root, who is not only for the league, but has performed valiant services for the existing league, for the party candidate.

The league together with progressivism were the backbone of all of Governor Cox's addresses to date. He delivered five, beginning early this morning at Pocatello, Idaho, with later addresses at Logan and Brigham, Utah, en route to Ogden and Salt Lake City.

Demonstrative Welcome. A demonstrative welcome was given the candidate all through Utah. Brass bands serenaded, automobile parades, shotgun salutes and participation in an annual "Peach day" celebration at Brigham, including being photographed with a bevy of young girls labeled "prize peaches," were features of the governor's reception. A dinner here tonight given by local democrats, a mass meeting and parade to the tabernacle, closed the candidate's Utah campaign. He left late tonight to speak tomorrow at Elko, Sparks, Winnemucca, Lovelock and Reno, Nevada, en route to California.

"Progress and peace" were the principal Utah preachments of the governor.

He also assailed the "senatorial oligarchy" and "big business," and repeated attacks upon republican campaign contributions.

"Every ounce of big business is being used to defeat me," he told his Brigham audience. That the "same crowd" of republican leaders which former President Roosevelt fought in 1915 now are in control of the republican party was stated to every Utah audience by the governor. In stressing that he stood for progress rather than reaction and in characterizing Senator Harding as the "candidate of reaction."

Says Harding Doesn't Know. In urging the league, Governor Cox asked his audience where Senator Harding now stood upon the league and in absence of replies, declared: "You don't know because he doesn't know himself."

That the senator has changed front frequently on the league issue was reiterated by the governor. He also declared that Senator Harding did not deal with the weather; the governor added that "big business works in devious, insidious ways to secure a reserved seat in government."

That a new senator would be elected from Utah, where Senator Smoot, republican, is seeking re-election, was a statement of the governor's which brought cheers from several audiences.

The candidate also assailed the republican senators whom he said had driven the president into bed of sickness and kept him there a year and a half. In discussing the league and the international court, Governor Cox again compared the league of the Monroe doctrine and stated that "not a single shot had been fired in a hundred years" by this nation to maintain the latter. Moral force is the principal power of the league, he said.

Men who discuss a substitute for the league, the governor asserted, "don't know what they are talking about."

A Part of League. "The international court," he continued to his Ogden audience, "is a part of the league, the supreme court of the league, but it will amount to nothing without the composite force of the nations of the world. If it is necessary to apply it to the decisions of this great tribunal."

Action of the league was likened to that of county sheriffs, which the governor said do not use physical force, but are sustained by moral force of their communities.

At the tabernacle, where he was introduced by Thomas H. Taylor, democratic gubernatorial candidate, the governor recalled that in the same spot in 1915 former President Taft spoke for the league and the cause of republican vote from the steps of "nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine" in favor of the league.

Through Utah the governor accompanied by Senator King, democratic candidate and party official, Senator King had just returned from campaigning in New York, Rhode Island and Indiana, and he said there were "none" there.

Strong Committee Appointed to Direct Pageant Production.

A strong committee composed of representative women has been appointed by Mrs. Ellice Atkinson, president of the Atlanta branch of the league, to take charge of the pageant at Lakewood during the Southwestern Fair, in October of an historical pageant dealing with the development and progress of Georgia from the time of the Indians until the present day.

The members of the committee are requested to meet Tuesday afternoon at a clock in the assembly hall, second floor of the chamber of commerce. Plans for the development of the pageant along the lines outlined by the author, Almond Carr, will be discussed with the leaders of the Atlanta league and Donald Macdonald, who will direct the staging of the three performances. The committee appointed by Mrs. Atkinson follows: Mesdames John K. Olney, Frank Imman, J. E. Sumner, Fred Bowman, Ellice, E. A. Parsons, Glenn Ryan, Perrin Nicholson, M. M. Hutchinson, Troup Howard, Max Lawenstein, R. A. Smythe, Thora Flager, Philip L'Engle, Annie T. Wiser, W. R. Dykes, E. W. Richardson, Joseph S. Raine, Plate Graham, Alonso Field, Frances Gooch and Cleveland Zahner.

Cocoanuts are the common form of exchange among the natives of the Nicobars. For instance a box of matches is worth twenty cocoanuts, while for needles the price is one coconut each.

When the Great Bridge Moves

At a touch of the hand the great cantilever lifts or the drawbridge swings so your ship may pass. The hand moves a switch, and the current from an Exide Battery sets in motion the motor that does the work. So also in railway signals, the Exide Battery says the word that speeds your train in safety.

From lighting farms and starting automobiles to propelling submarines and firing our big naval guns, Exide Batteries play their vital and unfailing part in peace and war.

There is an Exide Battery made for every purpose, and into each Exide is built the experience of the oldest and largest manufacturers of storage batteries in the world.

HUGE ATTENDANCE FOR UNIVERSITY

"Georgia" Swings Doors Open Today and Registration List Expected to Exceed 1,200 Students.

Athens, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—When the doors of the third day of registration today, 498 students had enrolled. Registration will continue until Saturday, and the daily registration has been increasing at a rate that indicates about twelve hundred by that time. Only twenty-one coeds have signed up thus far.

The increased enrollment and the inability of the university to employ more instructors because of the failure of the legislature to provide additional maintenance funds, has resulted in a ruling limiting more rigidly the number of hours a student may take per week. The dormitories are already filled and are being made to accommodate 50 per cent more than the normal number.

The college Y. M. C. A., the Athens Chamber of Commerce and the faculty dormitory committee are co-operating in finding housing accommodations for the students not placed in dormitories or fraternity chapter houses. Members of the committee foresee no difficulty in getting all placed in private homes and boarding houses.

An unusual number of freshmen are here, and the sale of the off-camp freshmen, cap in red and white, with a black "Y" over a long nose, indicates a class of around five hundred.

Football prospects are unusually plentiful. Fifty-five men were out practiced today, and Coach Buchanan and DeLoach say the quality will have the heaviest team in its history. Twenty-seven letters are being sent.

ARSEN PRAISES PARTY IN SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

Savannah, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—At the meeting of the 2nd district congressional committee at the city hall this morning, Judge W. W. French, congressman from this district, was nominated for the office by A. W. Jordan, of Swainsboro, and the nomination was seconded by J. E. Camp, of Dublin. After the credentials committee had received and passed up the report from the committee of the Second District Judge, Arsen was nominated by a unanimous vote and he accepted the nomination in a speech of acceptance, in which he declared that the democratic party had done more for the uplift of the country than any other party and advocated standing by the party and its principles, regardless of personal likes or dislikes.

Referring to woman suffrage, he recommended that, as women had been accorded equal rights with men, the chairman of the committee, at his discretion, appoint some every county women fitted for the job as members of the committee and so be given equal representation with the men. W. J. DeLoach, of Thomas county, was elected chairman of the committee, and C. H. Thompson, of Emanuel county, as secretary for the ensuing term of service.

NO QUICK DROP IN DRY GOODS

According to Speakers at Meeting of Southern Wholesalers in Atlanta Wednesday.

The members of the third division of the Southern Wholesale Dry Goods association, comprising Georgia, South Carolina, and Florida, met at a conference at the Piedmont hotel on Wednesday to discuss the reduction of prices on goods for the coming three months. Chairman P. D. Yates, of Ridley & Yates, Atlanta, presided.

"There are no surplus stocks on hand at present," stated Norman Johnson, secretary, "but no rapid decrease in prices is expected. Prices will not rise on all articles suddenly and they will not fall suddenly." Mr. Johnson has just returned from an extended trip covering the entire Southern association in which there are six divisions.

Prices to Lower Levels.

"The market is still in process of liquidation," declared Mr. Johnson, "however there is no indication of general price reduction, though there are some markets showing a gradual lowering of prices. Silks have been reduced approximately 15 to 20 per cent by jobbers from March 1 to September 15. Brown sheeting has suffered a like reduction. Fancy dress goods, table linens, percales and linens, in general, have been reduced 10 to 15 per cent. Reductions in the future cannot be specifically set forth, but prices are fast approaching a level which will restore confidence in the jobbers and retailers. With silks and coolen goods selling on a basis lower than cotton goods it naturally suggests that cotton cannot maintain a price higher than that into which silk and wool is used. Cotton has heretofore been used in making cheap silks and wool mixtures. So one or two things will happen—silk and wool will rise or cotton will fall. The amount of raw cotton on hand indicates that the woolens will not be the case. However there may be a slight advance in silks."

"The usual dull season for the retailers came with July, August and through the first half of September, but by comparison these months show an excess of business over similar months before the war. Every indication points to a free movement of merchandise during the latter part of September and October."

Soft in Good Condition.

"The south is in better condition to stand the readjustment than any other section of the country. The prices have been too high in all sections. The increased earnings of labor caused prices to go to levels which could not be stopped. It was not a question of price, but the working of the natural law of newly acquired riches. Every mercantile man knows that the cheaper ends have been stagnant and the turnovers slow."

"By the first of the year I expect to see this country enter upon a three-year period of just prices. Business men should, as I believe, will, forego excessive profits in order to get back to rock bottom."

Twenty-three jobbers attended conference.

FAMOUS UNITS OF WORLD WAR REORGANIZE

Macon, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—With the reorganization of the Macon Machine Gun company last night, two of the local military companies that were in existence before the outbreak of the world war, and which were apart of the Georgia national guard, have been brought into existence again, and steps are now under way to revive the other two companies—the Floyd Rifles and the Macon Volunteers. The Macon Hussars were reorganized a couple of weeks ago. Each company has a full complement of men.

Boyce E. Miller, captain of the company before the war, has been elected captain of the Machine Gun company. Other officers are: Under Winslett, first lieutenant; Charles I. Bennett, ranking second lieutenant, and J. W. Barnett, second lieutenant.

A committee, consisting of Captain Boyce Miller, of the Machine Gun company; Captain Winslett, of the Macon Hussars; Lieutenant Haire, Major J. M. Sigman, D. C. Harris, A. S. Thompson and T. O. Harris has been named to complete the reorganization of the Floyd Rifles, which they expect to do within the next two weeks.

Equipment for the Macon companies will be fixed here from the arsenal at Washington, D. C. Artillery equipment to the value of $70,000 has been shipped for the Hussars.

MILITARY OUTFITS BEING REORGANIZED

Savannah, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—The first steps toward the reorganization of the old Battery A, of the Chatham artillery, have been taken. Edward C. Thompson is to be captain of the new company.

Troop A, first squadron, Georgia cavalry (the old Georgia Hussars) was last night formally mustered into the service, having the distinction of being the first troop of cavalry in the states to be reorganized and recognized by the government since the close of the war.

Four companies of coast artillery are also to be organized in Savannah and the lists are being rapidly filled to carry on the story of the Savannah volunteer guard, which has been intact and done fine work for the past three or four years. Company K, old Savannah cadets, will also be reorganized.

TAX RATES OF SUMTER COUNTY ANNOUNCED

Americus, Ga., September 15.—(Special.)—Nineteen mills, or $19 on every $1,000 worth of property owned, is the state and county tax rate just fixed by the Sumter county board of commissioners of roads and revenues. Of this total, 12 mills, or $12, per $1,000 is levied for county purposes, and 3 mills of this is levied to pay interest upon and retire Sumter's bonded indebtedness of $500,000, recently authorized for the construction of the paved rural highway system. Five mills, or $5 per $1,000, is the tax levied for state purposes. Sumter's total, State Tax Commissioner H. J. Fairbairn has recently informed the board of commissioners must be increased by one-fifth, or approximately 20 per cent.

$400,000 ALABAMA ESTATE LITIGATION NOW NEARS CLOSE

Birmingham, Ala., September 15. Litigation between conflicting claimants to the $400,000 estate left by Emory M. Nowell, Birmingham oil man, who died in Cincinnati in January, 1920, under mysterious circumstances, which has been carried on in Ohio and Alabama courts for several months between children of the deceased residing in Birmingham on one side, and Helen Nowell, who claims to be a common law wife of Nowell, and children on the other, following the ruling of a bill in the chancery division of the circuit court setting a decree confirming a compromise agreement entered into between the contending persons.

Following the filing of the bill by attorneys for Ruby Stallings, as guardian of James Nowell, Fred C. Nowell, Margaret Nowell and Louise Nowell, Birmingham children of the deceased, residing at 2725 Hanover circle, a formal answer by Helen Powers Nowell, on behalf of herself and her two children, Emory M. Nowell, Jr., and Gerald F. Nowell, was filed in which they joined in the prayer of the complainants that the compromise agreement be confirmed by the court.

District Convention To Meet Saturday To Nominate Upshaw

The Fifth District Congressional convention will meet in the senate chamber of the capitol Saturday at 11 o'clock, according to an announcement Wednesday by officials. At 10 o'clock conference delegates will be held at the Kimball house.

The result of the congressional race will be read and ratified, and Congressman William D. Upshaw, who carried fourteen out of sixteen county unit votes in the recent primary, will be nominated by the convention.

Six Men and Two Automobiles Captured and 1,000 Gallons of Beer and Whisky Destroyed.

The arrest of six men for violations of the national prohibition amendment, the destruction of a 100-gallon capacity distilling outfit, 1,000 gallons of beer and several cases of whisky, and the seizure of two automobiles were reported to the office of the federal supervising prohibition agent Wednesday morning by Federal Prohibition Agents W. G. Whitley and George Hicks, who returned to Atlanta yesterday from raids in Cobb and Henry counties.

Four men were arrested Wednesday morning at 1:30 o'clock, when Agents Whitley and Hicks raided a still about five miles from Lovejoy, in Henry county. According to the officers, the still was in full operation. Two automobiles were on the premises and were seized.

The prisoners taken in the Henry county raid were P. H. Camp, white man of Jonesboro, and West Turnipseed, Luther Grice and Oscar Grice, all colored, of Lovejoy. A fifth man, said to be named Worley, and said to be the proprietor of the still, made his escape. Several gallons of whisky and 1,000 gallons of fermented beer were destroyed.

FIREMASTERS VOTE TO INCREASE LIEUTENANTS' PAY

The city board of firemasters, at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon, voted to recommend to city council that the salary of all lieutenants in the fire department be raised $10 a month to $140, which is within $5 a month of the salary received by captains in the department. At the same time the board recommended that the salary of second drivers at the fire stations be raised to equal that of the first drivers, who now receive $140, which is $5 a month more than the second drivers receive, though their duties are said to be identical.

It was pointed out that the duties of the captains and lieutenants are nearly similar also, and $15 a month is too wide a difference in their compensation. The question was brought before the board by Alderman J. R. Seawright and Councilman Frank Callaway. Money to provide the increase is not available in the appropriation to the fire department, and the finance committee of council will be asked to vote the necessary funds.

The board decided to sell an old engine and pump at Station No. 12, on the statement of the chief and the chief mechanic that the apparatus has outworn its usefulness to the department. It has been in service eleven years. The manufacturers of the pump, it was stated, have gone out of business, making it nearly impossible to procure parts for repair.

To Hold Revival

The Druid Hills Presbyterian church is planning to hold a revival from September 21 to October 3. The services will be held under the auspices of the two Bible classes. Rev. C. P. Phillips will conduct the meetings and will be assisted by Mr. C. B. Abick, who is in charge of the song services. The meetings will be held upon the lawn and there will be enough seats to accommodate the large crowds. Services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

CALOMEL DANGER TOLD BY DODSON

As You Cannot Gripe, Sicken, or Salivate Yourself if You Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead

Calomel does you a day! You what calomel is, it's mercury; silver. Calomel is dangerous. It is into your bile like dynamite, ing and sickening you. Calomel racks the bones and should be put into your system. As you feel bilious, sluggish, tired and all knocked out and you need a dose of danger—remember that your life is for a few cents. Little of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone, which straightens you up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.—(adv.)

SIMPLY ANOTHER NAME.

The republican party presents the remarkable anomaly of fighting the "league of nations," and yet encouraging a permanent "court of international justice," which is the same thing.

The reason is entirely political. The "league of nations," by that name, was planned around a table at which a democratic president of the United States sat.

It was brought back to this country by a democratic president. Therefore, though it was built upon suggestions that had previously been made by Elihu Root, Henry Cabot Lodge and other leaders in the republican party, it was, when brought back to the senate on the eve of an election year, quickly placed under a republican banner through apprehension that its acceptance would be to the political advantage of the democratic party, though dealing with the peace of the world, and with the restoration of normal business and financial conditions in America, became a party fight entirely—to which a few democrats unfortunately lent encouragement.

The demand for some kind of a peace agreement between the Christian nations of the world, however, became too imperative for the republicans to pass the league of nations principle up, therefore they began to play upon a name—that is to make, through propagandizing, the term "league of nations" as unpopular as possible, for party political reasons, at the same time to father a "court of international justice"—which is absolutely the same formula under a new label.

Hence, at the republican national convention in Chicago in June, the platform labored desperately on international questions, denouncing the "Wilson league of nations," but emphatically proclaiming its demand for a "court of international justice," with a lot of platitudes that attempted to disguise the real fact that the republicans had, after all, stolen the league of nations hood, and had substituted a new name in order to fool the American voters.

Since that time the republicans have been capitalizing every attack upon the "Wilson league," as they characterize it, but have not failed to equally capitalize their platform position for this "international court."

Now comes along the issuance from the headquarters of the league of nations in London the text of the project for a permanent court of international justice as adopted by The Hague committee of jurists, of which Elihu Root, the veteran republican leader, was a member.

This court is to have jurisdiction in suits between states, and is open only to members of the league.

When a dispute has arisen between states, and it has been found impossible to settle it by diplomatic means, and no agreement has been made to choose another jurisdiction, the party complaining may bring the case before the court. The court shall first of all decide whether the preceding conditions have been complied with; if so, it shall hear and determine the dispute according to the terms and within the limits of the next article.

The whole thing is simply an amplification of the court of arbitration organized by The Hague convention in 1899, and revised in 1907.

It is the heart and soul of the league of nations, as presented to the senate for ratification by President Wilson.

To sum up, therefore, we find the republicans fighting the league of nations with one arm, and embracing it under a different name with the other.

Should the party succeed in defeating the democrats by this anomaly, thus fooling the people as to the actual facts, it will then put the identical league of nations sought by Mr. Wilson into effect and claim credit for having done the whole thing.

AS TO MAINE.

The primary result in Maine is being given a great deal more significance than it deserves.

The republicans concentrated their efforts there for the purpose of creating a psychological effect upon the nation.

The fact is, in a normal republican state a greater majority than usual was piled up, largely because of republican pressure. And yet there is no denying that at the moment there is a restlessness that is prevailing generally, and it has shown itself in the early primaries.

It was apparent in Georgia, just as in Maine—a disposition to change, to get away from something that exists. It manifested itself in New Orleans, where Mayor Behrman, after fourteen years of service as chief executive, was defeated, notwithstanding the fact that he was regarded as invincible.

The result in Maine is simply an expression of that prevailing unrest in this country and throughout the world. It always follows war, and generally the dominant party is the victim. Normal conditions do not exist in politics any more than in business, hence normal standards do not apply in gauging results. The vote of Maine means nothing more than that Maine is suffering from the affliction that is at the present time affecting mankind generally.

Maine's result does not mean that the nation is going republican. In old-ringing republican states this same spirit of restlessness may and no doubt will express itself in the interest of Cox and Roosevelt.

And, after all, it is nearly two months before the fall election. The quivering pendulum may become steady before that time.

DESTRUCTIVE PLAY.

As the stellar feature to attract the public to the Minnesota State fair, the management advertised for the opening day, September 4, a "thrilling death duel" between two "gigantic locomotives directly in front of the grandstand."

It was to be "a genuine head-on collision," and presumably, as per expectations, both engines were either demolished or incapacitated for further usefulness in helping to bear their share of carrying the nation's commerce.

According to the fair management's screaming advertisement, carried in The St. Paul Pioneer Press on the morning of the "duel," "with screeching whistles and full head of steam, the two engines, weighing 160,000 pounds each will rush down the tracks towards each other at a speed of a mile a minute," and dash each other to death.

And at a time when every pound of the coal that was used in making those heads of steam is badly needed in American industries and American homes; and when every locomotive and every railway car is badly needed to transport American commerce and the necessities of life, it seems like the deliberate staging of a head-on collision is a mighty expensive and wasteful means of amusing the public.

The day we are living in demands, first of all, production; not destruction. And nothing that is essentially and purely destructive should be tolerated.

Of course, the banging together of two onrushing steel giants of the rail, each with a velocity of sixty miles an hour, is naturally intended to furnish a thrill; but so would the dynamiting of a skyscraper or the deliberately planned burning of a dry goods store building.

Yet no benefit could come from either spectacle; and a performance from which no possible good can come should not be permitted.

Play, like work, should be constructive, not destructive; productive, not at the expense of production.

And play that entails the destruction of railroad rolling stock without any possible compensatory benefits—and especially under existing conditions of inadequate transportation facilities the country over—might very profitably be dispensed with.

Now that food crops are plentiful, the Sons of Rest will hardly stand back from hauling the table supplies.

In the time of harvest-plenty the Prodigal Sons will beat Babe Ruth at the home-run baseball.

The Russian Reds are now as blue as indigo.

What September Says
(To the Weather-Grouchers.)
We dreamed of smokin' chimneys
In these September days.
But the smoke was in the air
He is keepin' up the blaze!

Yet he'd have it understood
That he'll leave us to the good;
An' wait for Winter, folks!
I keep him from the door—
I'm friendly to the poor:
When Winter comes,
With stormy drums,
You'll thank me more an' more!

We'll reap to "Dixie," by the band,
For that'll make us hustle!

The Working Spirit.

YOUTH'S DREAMS
Youth is life's earthly Paradise,
Its star-bright nights, its sunny days,
Its lotus flowers, its singing streams,
Lull us to sleep and happy dreams.

But, once beyond its golden gate,
We fall into the hands of Fate,
She locks the gate forevermore,
And life's dear thorn-paths lie before.

No lotus flowers lull us to sleep,
Sometimes we laugh, and oft we weep,
And what seems joy turns into pain—
Alas, Youth's dreams come not again!

WASHINGTON SEMINARY OPENS 43D TERM TODAY

The forty-third term of Washington Seminary on Peachtree road will begin Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

According to Principal J. D. Scott, the capacity of the boarding department has been filled since July, with over 100 applications declined for lack of room, and the outlook is for the largest attendance in the history of the school.

It will be a source of much pleasure to the patrons of this school to know that Miss Kathleen Colley, formerly of the faculty of Washington Seminary, but absent for some time, returns to the school for work in the seventh grade. Mrs. Minnie Davis, of Pittsburg, has been added to the faculty, in charge of the first and second grades, and her daughter, Miss Mildred Davis, has also been added to the faculty, for work in the fifth and sixth grades.

Miss de Tamayo has arrived from France to take charge of the French classes for the ensuing year.

An added feature is the service of Sonia Solomon, who will be in charge of the physical culture department of the school, every pupil is to be given a physical examination by her.

Shortly before sunrise a policeman heard a splash along a pier. Later he found a note.

"I left ten bucks in my Sunday kicks at the rooming guy. If he finds 'em, he better never have a chance to stop this buzzin' in my conk."

The Rialto is engulfed with a flood of musicals. They are all of the revue type and follow the same groove. They are shallow imitations of the Ziegfelds of light entertainment. Except they are not Ziegfelds. Imitations are never worth while, but because there are very few other types of show at seem to be making money.

It is a boon to the song writers, however. No matter how poor the show, the songs will have a sale.

Back home the seamstress in our family was Miss Jennie Smith and she was known to all as "Mile Jenny." In New York she was known to all as "Mile Jenny" and never as a seamstress. Always she would be a modiste.

POLITICS AT RANDOM

Press of the Nation Overburdening Georgia With Its "Pity"—Al Jolson's Song on Harding—Contest for Speaker of the Next Georgia House—Lillian Russell Gets More Advertising.

By JAMES A. HOLLOMON

The democratic press of the country seems to be over-alarmed about Georgia.

It has been giving much of its editorial space for a week to long and serious-minded dissertations under such captions as "Georgia's Shame," "Georgia's Head Is Down," "Georgia Disgraced," and all that sort of stuff, referring of course to the election of Thomas E. Watson to the United States senate.

Well, the record of The Constitution knows pretty well what I think of Watsonism as an "ism," but there is no occasion for the nation to go into hysteria because of Mr. Watson's triumph in Georgia.

It does not mean that Georgia is going to be revolutionized. It does not mean that Georgia is going to drop out of the procession of progress.

It does not mean that Georgia is ever going republican. It does not mean that Georgia is full of bolsheviks or "reds" or any thing of that kind.

There is a spirit of restlessness all over the country is undeniable, and until a permanent peace has been established and normal conditions resumed, there is no telling what is going to happen at the ballot boxes.

But come what may the country is safe. And it is the best country on the face of the earth.

Thomas E. Watson is a brilliant man. He is erratic and fanatical, and has for a quarter of a century schooled himself in hate—and yet, in the declining years of his life he has the opportunity at last to become a great, constructive statesman, and who shall say he will not?

I do not say he will, but most assuredly I shall throw no stumbling blocks in his path of service. Nor encourage the thought that Georgia has gone to the eternal bonanza because of his election.

At the festivities at Marion recently, participated in by Senator Harding and the Harding and Coolidge political league, Al Jolson, the blackface comedian, who, after whispering in Senator Harding's ear, announced that he was going to be the next Ambassador to China, sang a song he had written for the occasion. The first lines of the song are:

"We think the country's ready
For a man like Teddy,
One who is a fighter through and through."

This verse is much funnier than the comedian imagined or intended. Harding is as much like Roosevelt as a mad like a marble; as a house cat is like a panther; as a carp is like a trout; as sap pine is like hickory.

There are two other lines of the song just as funny:

"We need another Lincoln
To do the nation's thinkin'."

The comedian was particularly comical in this comparison of Harding to Lincoln. What oligarchy, senatorial or other sort, did Lincoln bow to, and when did Lincoln talk platitudes?

One wonders what the good men and women of the country who take the nation's duties and their own duties seriously think of such things.

Indications are there is going to be a lively fight for the next speakership in Georgia. Such a contest

Bits of New York Life
BY O. O. MCINTYRE

New York, September 15.—Paddy was born a stone's throw from Quirk's Suicide, half-breed, half-French, and he has been making a name for himself without a help from a wanton mixing a death potion in her beer. At 20 he was husky and he earned a living as a chucker-out in east side resorts.

It was the same story of the average east side boy. Environment lighted him with ambitions to be a boxer and he fought two or three times a week. He was a silver dollar. He became a barroom hanger-on who boasted of his conquests with women.

And then came the great war and Paddy was caught in the front line. He was one of the first to go across and he learned to know the hell of trench life, the front line, the Argonne. He was twice wounded. He has a silver plate in his leg is rusted.

He came limping back to his east side haunts. He put it "the hinge in me leg is rusted."

Ice cream parlors were the meeting places of the old soaks he met. He was a regular. He had with him for awhile and he listened to his stories of adventure in the front line.

Paddy soon saw that he was becoming a nuisance.

A few days ago he moved uptown—away about "fourteenth street"—and got a job a big the docks. He worked hard, and his stiff limb prevented him from doing an ordinary man's work. So he became one of those pitiful over-aged messengers that one sees along New York streets.

He held his landlady that there was a buzzin' in his head. "I think," he said, "I'm a nut, but I'm making me go off my nut, lady. I'm about cuckoo." But he worked on until the one night when he found a note.

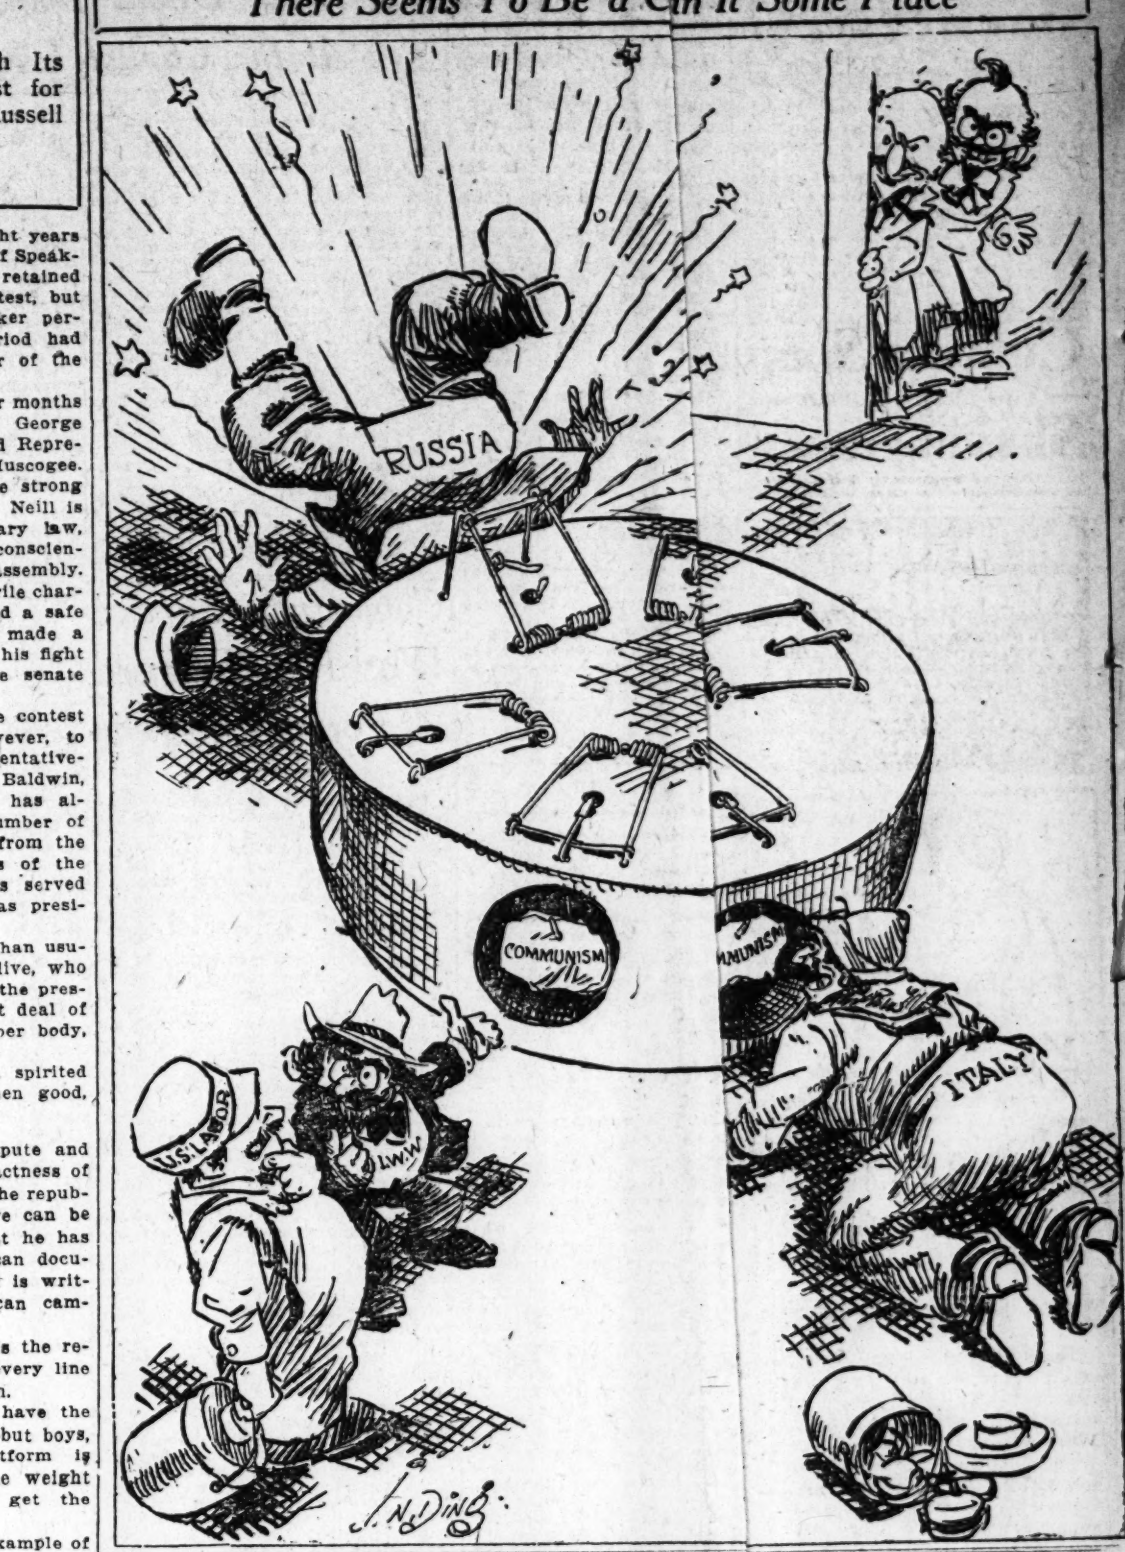

"I left ten bucks in my Sunday kicks at the rooming guy. If he finds 'em, he better never have a chance to stop this buzzin' in my conk."

The Rialto is engulfed with a flood of musicals. They are all of the revue type and follow the same groove. They are shallow imitations of the Ziegfelds of light entertainment. Except they are not Ziegfelds. Imitations are never worth while, but because there are very few other types of show at seem to be making money.

It is a boon to the song writers, however. No matter how poor the show, the songs will have a sale.

Back home the seamstress in our family was Miss Jennie Smith and she was known to all as "Mile Jenny." In New York she was known to all as "Mile Jenny" and never as a seamstress. Always she would be a modiste.

REST VERSUS EXERCISE FOR TB.

The old and reckless game of self-doctoring still enjoys a degree of popularity among victims of tuberculosis. Scarcely a day passes without a letter or two from readers who inform me they have tuberculosis and are contemplating a move west, east, north or south—anywhere, apparently, far enough away from home to inspire romantic ideas.

It is the romantic climate—and I will be good enough to suggest the proper place to go. I am no great shakes in the practice of the art, but I do have to be thus and so in the category with those unfit and incompetent members of the profession who feel that the best is done when they bid the TB victim to change climate.

Which means the chairman, Will Hays, has fallen into a trap to do a theatrical advertising for the once lovely Lillian Russell, who has tried every scheme from rouge to rough-rats to keep before the public.

Lillian Russell knows about as much about the league of nations as a jack rabbit knows about calculus.

There are very few really French restaurants in New York, but unless one acquires a French accent business passes by. Fifth avenue is the place for the French restaurant, and most of them are run by young girls who were reared on the east side. One of the most fashionable milliners in town used to be a French girl who had been in the Bowery theater eighteen years ago. Now she is known as "Bones" something or other—and she carries a loggnetto to work. Just think of that!

One of the loneliest jobs in New York is the care-taker of a public building. He is a lonely fellow, and he is away from the highway and few know about his fountain. He goes to his job every day without seeing a soul. But he has plenty to drink and plenty of time for thought.

Excuse, that remedy played up so convincingly, is the most harmful influence to which the self-doctoring victim of TB is exposed. It is a waste of time and money, and it is a waste of the patient's health. It is a waste of the patient's health. It is a waste of the patient's health.

IT IS FIXED BY LAW OF THE STATE

Editor Constitution: In the recent primary for senator, there were approximately 200 votes cast in Quitman county, against 14,000 in Fulton. Under the county unit system which prevails in Georgia, the vote of 200 in Fulton is credited with 6. But if my vote or your vote were as good as the vote cast in Quitman county, the voting strength of Fulton county would be 70 unit votes, and not 6. This is a simple matter of arithmetic.

In other words, one man in Quitman county has as much voting strength as 24 men in Fulton county.

Who is responsible for this injustice? Who has endowed the voters of Quitman county with 24 votes each? Who has disfranchised the voters of Fulton county?

The constitution of the United States gives us equal suffrage. Who has taken it away from us in Georgia? Who has perpetrated this monstrous evil?

Let us correct this crying injustice! Let us give to each white man in the state of Georgia one full vote, to which he is entitled.

An entire block of business buildings and five buildings on an entire block were destroyed by fire.

One Man Is Wounded When U. S. Officers And "Tigers" Battle

Shreveport, La., Sept. 15.—In a running fight between moonshiners and members of a sheriff's posse, a young man giving his name only as "Texas Jack," apparently 24 years old, was shot and seriously wounded late today. His companion, J. M. Kemp, surrendered and was placed in jail. The wounded man is in a hospital. Both men are strangers here. A fifty-gallon still and a large quantity of liquor were seized by the officers.

Resinol does wonders for sick skins

That itching, burning skin-trouble which keeps you scratching and digging, is a source of embarrassment, as well as of torment to you. Why don't you get rid of it by using Resinol Ointment? Physicians prescribe it constantly. In most cases, it stops itching instantly and heals eruptions promptly. It is very easy and economical to use.

Sold by all druggists. Resinol Ointment should usually be used by Resinol Soap.

MacSwiney Takes Turn for Worse On the 34th Day

Talks Wildly in His Delirium, Imagining Himself at the Head of Sinn Fein Army and Issuing Orders.

BY PERCY SARR.
United News Staff Correspondent.
London, September 15.—The condition of Lord Mayor Terence MacSwiney, of Cork, undergoing the thirty-fourth day of fast in Brixton jail, took an alarming turn for the worse on Wednesday. His appearance changed rapidly during the afternoon. His eyes became exceedingly dull and he was apparently in much pain.

For the first time since he imposed the sentence of starvation upon himself he has been delirious. During the night he talked wildly to his sister Annie, who sat at his bedside, imagining himself at the head of the Sinn Fein army. He issued orders in his delirium that brought him the fear when he regained his normal mind, that he might have exposed some Sinn Fein secrets. He asked his family should there be a recurrence of this to gag him by force.

Look for His Death.
Physicians would not be surprised if MacSwiney should die at any moment. The symptoms that developed during the last twenty-four hours are looked upon as significant.

Sinn Fein is using to the utmost the tremendous propagandizing value of the MacSwiney case. The keenest publicists are engaged in setting forth the "martyrdom" of the Irish patriot in an advantageous light, and there is no doubt that they have utilized his approaching death as a splendid means of advertising the cause. The government has at last recognized the necessity for counteracting the influence of Sinn Fein publicity, and is making an eleven-hour attempt to gather propaganda for its own side.

There is, however, no basis for suspicion that has been voiced in some quarters that the prisoner is being secretly fed. The Irish office would be only too pleased to discover this was being done, and declared that if it could obtain the slightest evidence of any nourishment having been given MacSwiney it would welcome the opportunity to expose him.

Cannot Predict Reaction.
Officials frankly say they can not predict what reaction will result from MacSwiney's death. The government, it became known Wednesday, has ordered its agents in every foreign country to report national sentiment on the MacSwiney case. Evidence that the fate of the lord mayor has attracted attention throughout the world is shown in the receipt of hundreds of letters every day by the lord mayor's communications from persons of all ranks in society, from all nations, and a majority of them couched in highly sympathetic tones, have poured in. Many of them urge Lady MacSwiney to advise her husband to break his strike.

HUSBAND OF MRS. ROCHE CAMP GORDON SOLDIER

wondering why she should take such a deep interest in a casual friend.

"I have often wondered myself why I have been so interested in Jack and I can't explain it except by knowing that I am helping in the protection of a man whom I know to be innocent and who doesn't seem to have any other friends to help him."

At this juncture Mrs. Roche was asked did she know Kellogg's wife, to which question she replied in the negative.

"It's just like this," she said. "If you knew of a fellow newspaper man who was being prosecuted for a crime you knew he didn't commit, wouldn't you go the limit for him? Well, Jack and I are both in the same profession. We are carnal people and I just couldn't help sticking to him in his hour of need."

Mrs. Roche is authority for the statement that a number of Atlanta taxicab drivers had employed a lawyer to assist in the prosecution of Kellogg. She was unable to give his name.

When the sheriff of Spalding county was questioned concerning the fear of bodily injury to Kellogg while in Griffin he was positive that no effort would be made to interfere with the regular process of the law, although he admitted that he had taken every precaution against mob violence.

"You can say for me that if Kellogg is tried here he will get a fair and impartial hearing," was his emphatic assertion.

Mrs. Roche was asked many questions concerning herself, most of which she treated lightly. When asked if she had lived in Atlanta all of her life she replied quickly, "Not yet."

She stated that she knew of the killing of Trexler forty minutes before the Atlanta police, but refused to divulge the source of her information. She had never known Trexler, but said she felt very sad about his untimely death, as she would about the death of anyone, whether she knew them or not.

"Let the people think what they will. I have told you the truth. Jack Kellogg was and is nothing more nor less than a friend in trouble and no effort on my part will be spared to see that he gets a square deal," was her parting statement.

As she walked away, she paused, turned sharply and said: "If you hear any news of Jack, good or bad, be sure and let me know at once."

Georgia Will Raise 20,185,000 Pounds Of Tobacco in 1920

Washington, September 15.—North Carolina's tobacco crop this year is forecast by the department of agriculture at 424,525,000 pounds, or about 18,000,000 pounds less than Kentucky's crop, each state producing more than one-quarter of the country's record-breaking crop of 1,553,812,000 pounds. Virginia's crop is forecast at 177,536,000 pounds, while South Carolina has 94,392,000 pounds; Tennessee, 77,067,000 pounds; Georgia, 20,185,000 pounds; Florida, 4,250,000 pounds, and Alabama, 1,495,000 pounds.

U. S. IS NEGOTIATING DISPUTE WITH JAPAN

Immediately, America entered a spirited protest when the Japanese occupied the northern or Russian half of the island, and the incident is by no means closed. Japan has replied but it is understood her reply was not wholly satisfactory and that a new note on the subject is shortly to be dispatched by this government. California furnishes a protest which can be played against the American position on Saghalin.

Then there is China. Japan is said to see in the United States the principal opponent of her activities there. The traditional policy of this country has been toward the protection of China's territorial integrity and independence. American influence is credited with being responsible when the Chinese cannot be managed. Shantung is the most prominent incident in connection with this. America is likewise opposed to anything but economic penetration of Siberia. As was indicated when American troops were withdrawn, and a broad hint was conveyed to Japan that territorial aggrandizement would not meet with favor.

America alone among the powers is free to deal with Japan. England and France have domestic and European problems, to keep them fully occupied, to say nothing of the Near East. England is involved through her treaty with Japan and her Asiatic interests. Japan is well aware of this, it is pointed out in diplomatic quarters, and sees American influence active in what she seems to be an effort to thwart her aims.

Meantime, the fact that the Pacific fleet has been augmented has not gone un-noted in Japan. This, coupled with other differences, has deepened the relations of the two countries.

In Persia playing cards of ivory have been used.

23 CRAP SHOOTERS ARE DISTURBED BY POLICE RAID

Read 'em and weep, then weep some more.

So they did, when City Detectives Hornsby and Howell made a sensational raid on what is said to have been one of the most elaborately equipped gambling dens ever molested by the law's strong arm in the city of Atlanta, when they forced entrance to a room at 49½ Central avenue Wednesday night, arrested twenty-three men and confiscated roulette wheels and a mass of other gambling paraphernalia.

The room had so been fitted out that entrance could hardly have been gained except through the regular way. Deep holes had been placed in all doors which were bolted from the inside and locked with heavy locks.

The place had been under the notice of officers of the detective department for some time and they had made detailed plans for effecting its capture.

Telegram to Flock Announces the Safety Of "Missing" Pastor

Americus, Ga., September 15.—(Special).—E. L. Carwell, a deacon of Central Baptist church, of which Dr. George F. Brown was pastor until last Sunday, received a telegram late this afternoon announcing Dr. Brown's safe arrival in Fort Worth, Texas, where he will enter the Southern Baptist seminary to pursue higher theological studies.

Friends of Dr. Brown and his family here were relieved by receipt of the telegram, a number of Georgia newspapers having printed the story of his "disappearance" today. From the best information obtainable, Dr. Brown missed meeting Mrs. Brown at Atlanta through an error she made in boarding the wrong train at Cartersville, and he was totally unaware of her distress of mind, believing that she had been detained and would communicate with him when he reached his destination.

Business Building by Centuries

"Makers of fine footwear since the days of George III," "Unrivaled for fifty years," "This corporation has granted insurances for two hundred years," "Known for upward of a century," "Founded 1815."

These are random phrases from advertisements in a recent trade supplement of The London Times.

We lay less stress on age in American business. A recent inquiry as to how many American business houses could look back on a century of service, yielded an incomplete list of but 58.

Yet AGE IS AN ASSET. It is a promise of FAIR DEALING. A HISTORY OF HONESTY.

The First National Bank of Philadelphia, established in 1863, is the oldest national bank in the United States. The Atlanta National Bank, established just two years later in 1865, when Atlanta was in ashes, is the oldest national bank in the Cotton States.

Fifty-five years of scrupulous care in guarding the interests of every depositor, has made the Atlanta National Bank not only a wonderfully successful business institution, as the above statements will show, but is an assurance that it will continue to be a REAL AND VITAL PART OF THE GREAT THROBBING COMMERCIAL LIFE OF THE SOUTHEAST.

H. WILLS DEFEATS J. CLARK

BY GENE HINTON.

Harry Wills, introduced as the "Colored Heavyweight Champion," had a nice workout for the greater part of four rounds of the audio-visual last night before a mixed crowd of some twenty thousand people. Jack Clark served as an excellent chopping-block for Wills' would-be haymakers, and in the fourth round of the scheduled ten-round affair his second, feeling that the Idaho negro had received his quota of punishment for the night, tossed a comparatively white towel in the ring, proclaiming Wills the winner. What- ever for or against may be said concerning the Clark individual, credit must be accorded him for being of the toughest Senegambians who ever graced a local canvas.

For three rounds, Wills hit the westerner with everything but the rope posts, but the bullet-proof head of the latter proved an obstacle that Wills had not reckoned with. After running into one or two of Wills' swings and then jabbing weakly in the general direction of the huge negro's head, Clark would either run into a clinch—an art at which he seemed particularly adept—or would recline upon the ropes, in very much the same position as that of a snapping-turtle with its head withdrawn. The only portion of his anatomy left entirely unprotected was his broad and glistening back, which Wills pounded with much gusto.

Clark Bear for Punishment.

In the fourth round, Clark came out of his corner as fresh as ever, despite his punishment. In some unguarded moment, however, he placed his chin something like three inches too close to the lower end of Wills' long right arm, and from that moment it was pretty generally known how much longer the human punching bag would last. Several more terrific wallopings followed the first one and Clark was ready for several counts of ten before being toted to his corner.

The card opened with the usual dusky gladiators, and until the bat- tlers were worn out the scrap was decidedly mirth-provoking.

Net Stars Are Named For Davis Cup Team

New York, September 15.—Final official announcement of its selections for the American tennis team in the Davis cup matches in Auckland, New Zealand, in December, was made tonight by the United States Lawn Tennis association, through George T. Adee, former president and a member of the Davis cup team committee. William T. Tilden II, world's singles champion; William M. Johnston, R. N. Williams, II, and Samuel Hardy, captain, comprise the team.

Mr. Adee said Charles S. Garland, of Pittsburgh, who was a member of the American team in England, had been announced a member of the challenge team through error.

Following the erroneous announcement of Garland as a member, tennis devotees here questioned the selection of Captain Hardy, advancing the argument that he did not possess the youth and stamina of the younger players. In explaining the committee's selection, Mr. Adee said Hardy was chosen because of his proven generalship and knowledge of the game.

"While Hardy is being set in as a playing captain, it is hardly likely that he will participate," Mr. Adee said. With singles championships, the doubles champions, and Hardy, we believe the Davis cup will be brought back to this country. The fourth man of such teams seldom plays, only, of course, in event of serious injury or illness befalling one of the other members."

Boorde Kayes Barlow.

In the second bout, Freddie Boorde was pitted against Johnny Barlow, a newcomer to the Atlanta ring. He seems to be an ambitious young scrapper, but without the size or the experience to cope with the local boy. In the second round, seemingly without blow, Barlow went to the canvas and was saved by the bell. In the third, after a mild exchange of punches, the referee, Brodie, felled the visitor to the floor with a terrific right hook and he held under bonds of $1,000 each by Judge Johnson.

E. P. McKinney, of 238 Forrest avenue, and Sam Delay, of 448 Glenwood avenue, also charged with violating the liquor law, were bound over to the state court. McKinney's bond was fixed at $200, while Delay was allowed bond in the sum of $100.

Fred Hargrow, negro, who was driving the truck that collided with the machine of Jack Reynolds, of 73 Garden street, in front of 55 West North avenue, September 8, inflicting injuries upon Mr. Reynolds from which he died four days later, was held under charge of manslaughter. His bond was fixed at $5,000.

Sim Wright, negro, charged with burglary, and Charlie Hatcher, charged with robbery, were held under bonds of $1,000 each. Wright was accused of breaking into the paint store of the Klein Manufacturing company, at 556 Marietta street. Hatcher is alleged to have forcibly taken the pocketbook and valuable from another negro.

TAXICAB COMPANY CONCERNED OVER MISSING DRIVER

Fearing foul play following the murder of a taxicab driver last Friday on a lonely road near Griffin, Ga., officials of the Yellow Taxicab company Wednesday night expressed grave concern over the probability that H. H. Mathews, a driver for the company, has met with similar fate.

Mathews left Atlanta Tuesday night with a passenger, bound for Windsor, Ga., and has not been heard of since. It is a rule of the company to have their employees report whenever they are delayed, and Mathews was scheduled to arrive back in Atlanta Thursday morning.

Information from the sheriff at Windsor, Ga., and has not been heard of since. It is a rule of the company to have their employees report whenever they are delayed, and Mathews was scheduled to arrive back in Atlanta Thursday morning.

The Atlanta police officials have been notified. The car is a standard yellow one, bearing car number 32, and license number 32296.

Beaten in Prohi Raid.

Danville, Va., September 15.—G. M. Clarke, farmer, of Brookville, is in a serious condition in a local hospital today as a result of being beaten with clubs while prohibition and federal agents were making a raid yesterday. The officers allege that Clarke tried to kill H. B. Crenshaw with a revolver, and that he previously threatened to kill any officers attempting a raid on his farm.

New "Hitchy Koo" Opens 1920-21 Season At Atlanta Theater

With as happy a selection as could be desired—the brilliant 1920 edition of Raymond Hitchcock's "Hitchy-Koo"—the new theatrical season will open at the Atlanta theater tonight. From then on through early spring there will be practically no dark nights, contracts already having been signed for a series of the biggest attractions Atlanta has ever known.

Manager Lewis Haase has everything in readiness for an opening that promises to be auspicious in every particular. Certainly the seat sale indicates a tremendous beginning for the winter, "Hitchy-Koo," which is all new but the title and which could hardly be praised too highly, will be presented again Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday.

The performance this year contains fourteen scenes. Among those deserving special mention are "The Chinese Bazaar," the gorgeous phonograph fantasy, the hilarious Pam-phases her to a dance at the country club, which she attends, but is ignominiously taken back to school by the school mistress, who has followed her.

In her absence the school has been robbed and one of the girls has disappeared. Later, she meets the missing girl in New York and learns she is a crook. The crook, who is feigning capture by the police, graciously "lends" the "flapper" a large quantity of clothes and jewelry. Our adventurous lady then evolves the brilliant idea of adorning herself in this finery and goes back to her home town where she poses as a wicked woman of the world.

The complications that ensue are most hilarious, but they result in the young lady learning a lesson in real life as it is, and not as she feigns to be.

Loew's Grand offers two film attractions during the last half of the week that are particularly deserving of notice.

"The Overseas Revue" is an aggregation of comic opera talent, including several Broadway favorites and a gorgeous chorus, that has been a sensation in vaudeville circuits of the country.

Augmenting this pretentious production, the Grand offers other stellar vaudeville attractions and two motion picture features that are far above the average. One of these is the exclusive "beat" of an enterprising cameraman who has induced Pope Benedict XV, of Rome, to pose for the camera for the first time in history. The views of this distinguished figure, snapped against the background of the interior of the Vatican, are a feature heretofore unknown in the annals of the film world.

The Grand's other screen feature is "King Spruce," a smashing drama of the great outdoors, with mighty Mitchell Lewis as the star.

Think well of the Dealer who is thinking of You

OBSERVERS of changing conditions know there has never been a time in the history of the retail business in this country when quality and economy ideas—and the dealers who stand for those ideas—had such a hold on the public.

A demand is now sweeping over the country for better—more serviceable—more economical merchandise.

The straightforward dealer knows this.

He knows that once public confidence is established, a dealer's success is assured—that the public is only going to continue to buy from dealers whom it can trust and esteem—men who always place the interest of their customers first.

That is why, in the stores of over a quarter million dealers in this country, you will always find the Gillette out where you can see and examine it.

On top of the counter—in the show window—ready to be handed out first whenever a man comes in looking for a razor.

The Gillette is the only scientific shaving instrument ever produced.

It started—not with a theory or a desire to sell razors—but with the actual shaving needs of men everywhere.

And working from that, it developed into a personal shaving service—a service that has gone 'round the world and changed the shaving habits of thinking men everywhere.

Whenever or wherever the topic of a good shave comes up, the Gillette habit is always the final answer.

Vouched for and acknowledged by twenty million men the world over as one of the cleanest, safest, most economical, most valuable habits they have ever formed.

The dealer who hands you a Gillette is thinking first of your interests. Think well of him.

SOUTH'S OLDEST STAGE
CARPENTER IS BURIED

Herbert Swope, accredited with being the oldest stage carpenter in Atlanta and possibly in the south, died Tuesday night.

Mr. Swope was 70 years of age, and has followed the profession of stage carpenter for many years. During those years he had been identified with the wonderful scenic effects that marked the beauty of plays in which Jefferson, Booth, Barrett, Russell and other famous actors and actresses dominated.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the chapel of Greenberg & Bond, with arrangements in charge of the Fiks. Interment took place in Oakland cemetery.

MRS. CROSBY TAKES QUANTITY OF IODINE

Mrs. Ella Crosby, 26 years old, of 148 South Boulevard, was rushed to the Grady hospital about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, after she had swallowed a quantity of iodine. The quick work of Dr. Adams prevented serious consequences from the drug.

Crosby would not say whether she took the poison by mistake or with suicidal intent. She was convulsed with pains when the ambulance reached her at the house.

For years it was believed that a machine could never be made which would weave wicker baskets and furniture. But a machine which produces flawless work at thirty times the speed of the best hand weaving is now in use.

FEDERAL JUDGES WARMLY SCORED

Program to "Rid" Government of Officials Not Enforcing Volstead Law Planned by Prohis.

Washington, September 15.—A program designed to "rid" the government of officials who do not observe or enforce the "spirit" as well as the letter of the Volstead act, was put under way at the first session today of a national conference here of Anti-Saloon league officials.

As the first step toward carrying out the proposed program, the conference appointed a committee to draft a resolution which, league officials said, would serve notice on federal judges that their "sacred duties must be sacredly performed." The committee was instructed to report tomorrow. Impeachment proceedings were suggested as means to compel judges to comply in "a proper manner." The penal provisions of the prohibition enforcement act in dealing with persons convicted of violating the law.

The conference, in its discussions, evinced a determination that the next congress be made "dry" and "kept dry." Speakers expressed the fear that "the power of the wets is not entirely downed," and unless a majority is maintained in congress favorable to rigid enforcement, the prohibition code may be changed.

Not Satisfactory. Administrative officers. It was indicated, also, will be brought within the league's program, several speakers asserting that in a great many instances administrative officers were not functioning to the satisfaction of the "drys." The proposal was made that the league "build fires" under those who betray the trust of their appointment. The opinion was expressed that liquor interests might seek to defeat the aim of the law by obtaining the appointment of officials who would wink at some kinds of violations.

The discussions of league officials brought half a dozen vigorous attacks on officials of varying grades who have to do with enforcement of the Volstead act. The internal revenue bureau was criticized for issuing "scads of wholesale permits," and federal judges were accused of "coddling" moonshiners and boot-leggers. Many judges were pictured as too lenient and as having permitted violators to escape punishment with fines of a few hundred dollars. Speakers also told of what they described as "amazing conditions" in many localities where "saloons" run almost openly, and even a stranger has no difficulty in obtaining liquor.

"Stand by League." Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the league, made an address.

in which he called upon "all persons who believe in law enforcement" to stand by the league in electing only dry candidates to congress. He said it was a most "inopportune time" to encourage lawlessness, saying the country is facing "much defiance of law," and he believed serious danger lay in the situation.

"If the outlawed brewers can defy the constitution of the United States," Mr. Wheeler said, "then any other group of citizens who do not like a law can proceed to nullify it, and the government itself would be in jeopardy. When law enforcement is gone, then all order is gone. Now is the time for every 100 per cent American to insist upon fair and honest enforcement of the eighteenth amendment and upon the election of men who will not nullify the will of the people by making changes in the Volstead act, the very nature of which would be an overriding of the constitution."

LIQUOR IS SOLD
UNDER VERY NOSES
OF DRY LEADERS

Washington, September 15.—While the directors of the Anti-Saloon league were demanding more rigid enforcement of prohibition laws, and the Internal Congress Against Alcoholism was preparing for its session, the illicit traffic in booze gave a few evidences of life under the noses of the prohibitionists.

Corn liquor, newly made and vicious, was obtainable within five minutes' walk of the office of Prohibition Commissioner Kramer, at $10 or $12 a quart. While in color and with none of the characteristics of the old familiar rye or Bourbon—except kick—this product is less popular than the bonded stuff to be obtained by those who are "in on the know."

And much of the old-time fluid, said to have come in part from Baltimore, was to be had. Good quality booze, it was claimed, could be obtained at from $10 a quart up to $20 a quart. Prices are shaded by the bootleggers whose purchases are made by the case.

EVANGELIST HOLCOMB HEARD BY BIG CROWD

Evangelist Walt Holcomb preached one of his best sermons last night to a large crowd, under the big tent at Park avenue and Dabney street, pastor and members of the Grant Park Methodist church were delighted with the results of the service, as there were a half dozen reclamations and conversions.

Mr. Holcomb took for his text Jeremiah 3:22, and made an effective appeal from the word "Return." Mr. Curry had the largest choir yet, and the people are delighted with the chorus work. His solo entitled "Come Home" was one of the most helpful that he has sung.

The people continue to come from different sections of the city, and are taking special interest in the service. Several other pastors are attending and aiding in the work. Tonight's program is of special interest, and the song service will start at 7:30 p. m., led by Mr. Curry. Mr. Holcomb begins preaching at 8 o'clock.

EDGAR HAMLETT DIES
SUDDENLY IN VIRGINIA

Edgar Hamlett, a well-known Atlanta business man and member of Yaarab temple of Shriners, died suddenly in South Boston, Va., according to information received by members of his family Tuesday evening.

Mr. Hamlett is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Allie Carson, of Portland, Ore., and three children—Miss Beatrice, a high school teacher in the kindergarten of St. Luke's church; Edgar Hamlett and Carson Hamlett. His son, Edgar, has gone to Virginia to accompany the body to Atlanta. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

CAPITOL GOSSIP

After having remained in session all day Wednesday considering applications for clemency and pardons, the pardon commission will continue its grind today, and it is very probable several decisions will be announced.

That Governor Hugh M. Dorsey would wait until he spoke in Macon next Wednesday in the interest of the "Advertise Georgia" campaign and conferred with friends before he accepted an additional judge of the city court, who was recently killed by a motor truck, was the indication Wednesday afternoon.

Charles Hall, Malcolm D. Jones, R. C. Jordan, W. C. Gunn, Joe Hill Hall and John P. Ross, all prominent Macon lawyers, have applied for the superior court judgeship. The city court judgeship carries a remuneration of $7,500 a year, and it is understood a number of lawyers in Macon will apply for the appointment.

With arbitrations still pending in 12 counties and decisions announced by the Banks and Grady cases in favor of the state and against it in the Fayette county controversy, H. J. Fulbright, state tax commissioner, announced Wednesday afternoon three counties have not yet filed their digests.

Early in the year Mr. Fulbright advised the counties what he thought their percentage of increases should be, and on receiving most of the digests he raised over half from 10 to 15 per cent. Twenty of these counties protested the increase, and all have been decided, excepting twelve, where boards of arbitration are now attempting to reach an agreement.

In the Banks county case the state won its position that the digest reported should be increased 15 per cent, while in the Grady county case an increase of 8 1/2 per cent was granted. The state demanded a 15 per cent increase in Fayette county's digest, but the board of arbitration ruled otherwise.

The secretary of state, James

Business Conquered

A veteran business man, who was almost completely bald and had tried tonics, lotions, shampoos, etc., in vain, came across an Indians' elixir by which he gave a complete crop of healthy hair he now possesses. The hair elixir is called "KOTALCO." Others—men and women—have reported remarkable aid to hair growth, relief from dandruff, cessation of falling hair by using Kotalco.

In a vast number of cases, when hair falls out, the roots are not dead, but remain for some time in the scalp, the seeds or bulbs, waiting only fertility. The usual hair tonics, etc., are of no avail. The Indian method is superior to nourish the hair and stimulate the growth. It costs so little to try Kotalco that it is a risk to lose the boon which this might bring to you.

Wonderful results reported: For men, women's and children's hair. If you are bald, or losing hair, or have dandruff, you should try KOTALCO; it may be what's needed for your scalp and in such case it is a pleasure to observe the starting of new hair and its steady increase until you have growth. You may obtain a full box of genuine Kotalco at any drug store. Or a proof box will be mailed if you send 10 cents, silver or stamps, to John Hart Brothers, Station F, New York, N. Y.

ment is now busily engaged in granting amendments to bank charters throughout the state, in order that the institutions may comply with the recent banking laws requiring all banks to have all their capital stock paid in.

The Peoples Bank of Gordon, Ga., was granted an amendment Wednesday to reduce its capital stock from $25,000 to $20,000, while the Citizens Bank of West Point was given permission to increase its capital stock from $25,000 to $50,000.

Get a Start On Your Rheumatism

Begin the Proper Treatment Before the Disease Germs Become Active

Suppose you could save yourself much of the torture that Rheumatism has in store for you this winter, by taking a little precautionary treatment right now? Don't you think you would be wise in doing so?

The little pain demons that often cause Rheumatism lie dormant and inactive in summer, but when winter approaches they resume their attack with renewed fury.

If you have been a victim of Rheumatism, don't make the mistake of thinking that you are at last free from its clutches, simply because you have escaped its pains in summer. The first damp, cold day of returning winter will convince you of your error.

The really wise thing to do is to take advantage of the dormant, inactive condition of the millions of tiny disease germs, and endeavor to eliminate them from your system right now while they are less able to resist effective treatment.

Until you do cleanse your blood of the cause of your Rheumatism, you will remain in the clutches of the disease, and you will have to undergo another season of rubbing with liniments, lotions, etc., in an endeavor to get relief from its torturing pains.

Many people have found that the summer season is an excellent time to cleanse the blood of the impurities which cause their Rheumatism, because the germs are more easily reached while they are inactive.

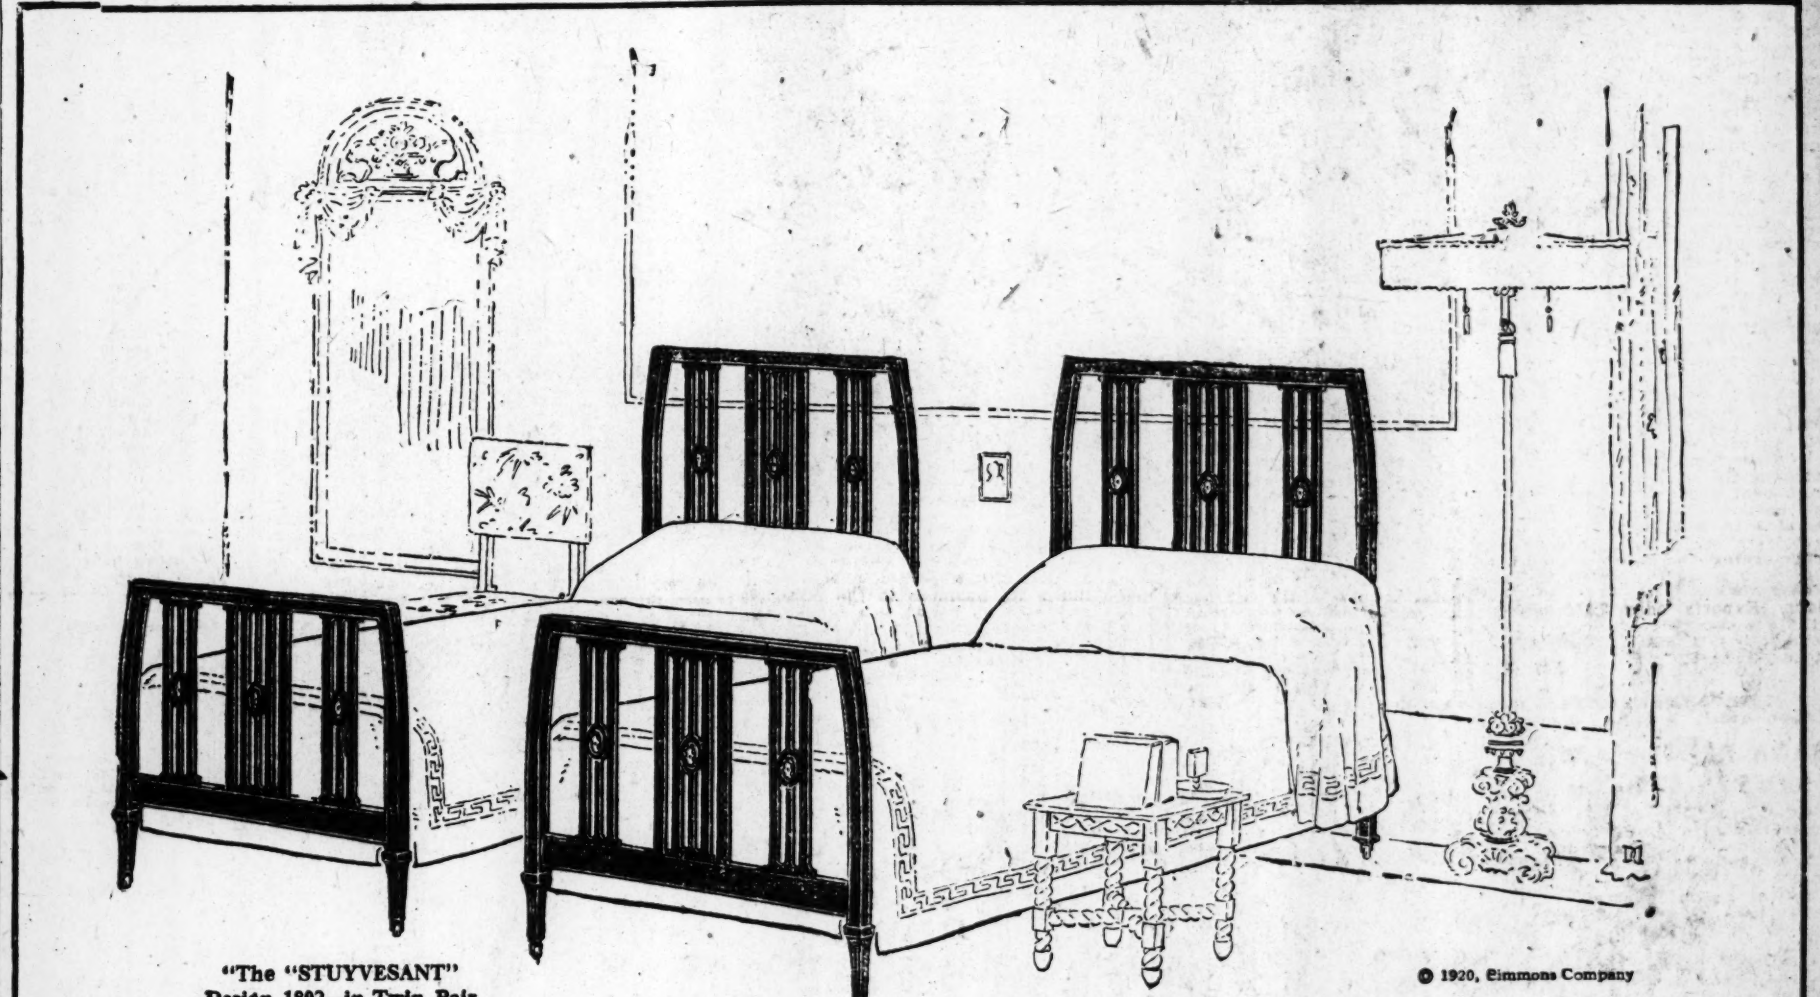

One of the best remedies for Rheumatism is S. S. S., which is an excellent blood purifier, and acts by eliminating from the blood all impurities. S. S. S. has been successfully used in hundreds of cases of Rheumatism, and perhaps it is just the treatment that you need. It is sold by all druggists.

Our trained physician will take pleasure in giving you any desired information or advice about your own case, without cost. Write today to Chief Medical Adviser, 280, Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

STATE HIGHWAY PROJECTS REACH ENORMOUS TOTAL

What is the state highway department doing?

Here is a summary of road work recently given out, including present projects and authorized projects, the latter having been authorized by the government.

At the present time there are seventy-four projects under construction, valued at $1,535,725.34.

Seventeen additional authorized projects, valued at $1,008,355.59.

Eighty-three proposed projects valued at $2,864,160.37. The aggregated total of projects being one hundred and eighty-nine, with a valuation of $12,273,453.

So far there are 17,041 miles of paved roads that have received government authorization and are actually being constructed. 673.4 miles of sand and clay roads, and 34.4 miles of graded roads, making a total of 17,749 miles of roads finished or under immediate construction.

In addition to the road work that is being put under way the highway department has been authorized to erect thirty steel or concrete bridges, now under construction.

The projects being carried out by the department are located in 107 different counties and the work is being carried along rapidly for completion.

Clarksville, Tenn., September 15.—A verdict of murder in the first degree, with mitigating circumstances, was returned against Irvn C. Rigins here today.

The punishment was fixed by the jury at twenty-one years in the penitentiary. The trial extended over a period of twenty-three days.

Riggins was charged with the murder of W. Frank Smith on April 2, 1920. It was alleged that he killed Smith in the barn of Lizzie Riggins, a negro, later throwing the body in the Cumberland river on his farm, where it was found ten days later. The charged woman was the accused of Riggins.

C. C. GEORGE BURIAL TODAY IN LOGANVILLE

Funeral services of C. C. George, of 140 Euclid avenue, widely known citizen of Atlanta, who died Tuesday afternoon at the Georgia Baptist hospital, as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident that occurred last week, will be held at Loganville, Ga., this (Thursday) morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. J. F. Jackson, of Atlanta, will officiate.

Mr. George was 66 years of age, and the father of Homer C. George, well-known Atlanta, of the New-Kirk-George Motor company. For many years he had resided at Loganville, Walton county, where he has a host of friends who will receive with regret the news of his death.

Surviving him is his son, Homer C. George, and a sister, Mrs. Tryon Smith, of Decatur. H. M. Patterson & Son are in charge of funeral arrangements.

Little Rock, Ark., September 15.—The democratic state convention here today, without a dissenting vote, adopted a platform endorsing President Wilson and his administration and condemning the republican congress as well as "the senate oligarchy."
